

PROGRAM

September 8th

	Plenary hall Languages EN / RU / LT	Renaissance hall EN / RU
12.00-13.30	Registration & Welcome coffee/tea
13.30-14.30	Opening of the conference Minister of Health of Lithuania Dr. Arunas Dulkys (Lithuania) Welcome speech. The mental health workforce of the future: qualities and tasks Norman Sartorius (Switzerland)
	Current Challenges in Mental Health
	Chairperson: Robert van Voren (Lithuania / The Netherlands)
14.30-15.00	Keynote 1. The power of integrating experts by experience in transforming mental health Charlene Sunkel (South Africa)
15.00-15.30	Keynote 2. Covid and mental health: an update Sir Graham Thornicroft (UK)
15.30-16.00	Coffee & tea break
16.00-16.30	Keynote 3 Human rights based mental health care: The World Psychiatric Association program supporting alternatives to coercion Helen Herrman (Australia)
16.30-17.00	Keynote 4. Inequality and mental health Richard Wilkinson (UK)
17.00-18.30	Reception
18.30-20.00		Concert by Alexey Botvinov Introduction by George Szmukler (UK) – Music and mental health Arunas Germanavicius (Lithuania) – Remembering Saulius Peculis

International conference

RETHINKING Mental Health Care

8-10 September 2022, Palace of the Grand Dukes, Vilnius, Lithuania

September 9th

	Plenary hall Languages EN / RU / LT	Renaissance hall EN / RU
8.00-9.00	Registration & Welcome coffee/tea
	The Service User Perspective
	Chairperson: Rob Keukens (The Netherlands)	Chairperson: Nicole Votruba (United Kingdom)
9.00-10.00	Symposium 1 Personal experience as a turning point - Lion Gai Meir (Israel) ; Service User movement and Lived experience: Indonesia – Agus Sugianto (Indonesia) No time for ineffective mental health care: Our lives are at stake – Dana Chrtkova (Czechia)	Symposium 2 The importance of peer support environments – Martijn Kole (The Netherlands) ; Surviving through successive crisis situations: challenges and opportunities - Joshua Abioseh Duncan (Sierra Leone) ; The us-and-them divide? – Karina Stjernegaard (Denmark)
10.00-10.15	Logistical break
10.15-10.45	Keynote 5. Our value beyond our expertise Claudia Sartor (South Africa)
10.45-11.15	Keynote 6. Silence is meaningless. My Bipolar Story Marius Repšys (Lithuania)
11.15-11.45	Coffee & tea break
11.45-12.45		Debate. Can people with Lived Experience be integrated in the mental health system? Moderator: Claudia Sartor (South Africa) Pro: Agus Sugianto (Indonesia) Con: Lion Gai Meir (Israel)
12.45-14.30	Lunch break
	Coercion and Compulsory Treatment
	Chairperson: Graham Thornicroft (United Kingdom)
14.30-15.00	Keynote 7. Mind the Gap: Researching 'Alternatives to Coercion' in Mental Health Care Piers Gooding (Australia)

15.00-15.30	Keynote 8. Supported decision making: positive approaches to promoting rights and preventing coercion Gavin Davidson (Northern Ireland)
15.30-15.45	Logistical break
	Chairperson: George Szmukler (United Kingdom)	Chairperson: Nicole Votruba (United Kingdom)
15.45-16.15	Keynote 9. We are not God Myrre van Spronsen (The Netherlands)	Keynote 10. Rethinking Mental Health: Perspectives from the WHO African Region Florence Baingana (Uganda)
16.15-16.45	Coffee & tea break
16.45-18.00	Film “Emma Wants to Live” (RU)	Film “Emma Wants to Live” (EN)
18.00-18.15	Logistical break
18.15-19.15	Workshop 1. Empowering persons with Lived Experience Charlene Sunkel (South Africa) Vanessa Cameron (United Kingdom) Lion Gal Meir & Shirit Pearl Levy (Israel)	Debate. Compulsory treatment of eating disorders is unnecessary Based on film “Emma Wants to Live” Moderator: Gerard J. Butcher (Ireland) Pro and con: Representative of Vilnius Eating Disorder Center

September 10th

	Plenary hall Languages EN / RU / LT	Renaissance hall EN / RU
8.00-9.00	Registration & Welcome coffee/tea
The Social Impacts of Mental Health
9.00-10.00	Symposium 3 Chairperson: Nicole Votruba (United Kingdom) Effects of the global ecological crisis on the mental health of children and adolescents: an international perspective – Ruta Karaliuniene (Germany) Lost and found: human rights based approach for deinstitutionalization in Lithuania – Karile Levickaite (Lithuania) ;	Symposium 4 Chairperson: George Szmukler (United Kingdom) Multifamily intervention for patients with schizophrenic disorders and their relatives – an effective intervention to prevent relapse and to strengthen self-healing power – Hartmut Berger (Germany) ; Social accessibility of mental health care: a human rights based perspective – Marianne Schulze (Austria)

International conference

RETHINKING Mental Health Care

8-10 September 2022, Palace of the Grand Dukes, Vilnius, Lithuania

	Patients' experience of psychiatric hospital treatment- as quality of care monitoring tool – Arunas Germanavicius (Lithuania)	Better care involves respecting evidence as much as values – Peter Tyrer (United Kingdom)
10.00-10.15	Logistical break
	Chairperson: Nicole Votruba (United Kingdom)
10.15-10.45	Keynote 11. Towards rights based mental health care – Where are we now? Dainius Puras (Lithuania)
10.45-11.15	Keynote 12. Psychosocial stress and mental health: What can be done? Peter Falkai (Germany)
11.15-11.45	Coffee & tea break
	Chairperson: Mireille 's Gravesande (The Netherlands)
11.45-12.45	Keynote 13. Advance care planning in mental healthcare Matthe Scholten (The Netherlands / Germany) Keynote 14. Mental Health Centers – how the mental health care system is changing in Poland Katarzyna Szczerbowska & Anna Monczka (Poland)	Symposium 5 Chairperson: Robert van Voren (Lithuania / The Netherlands) How a person with lived experience becomes a member of a mental health team. My experience from Poland – Ivan Sitsko (Poland); E-learning as instrument in Mental Health Education. An example from the Netherlands – Rob Keukens (The Netherlands); The samopomich/samopomoch psychological aid program – Robert van Voren (Lithuania / The Netherlands)
12.45-14.30	Lunch break
New and Alternative Methods of Care
	Chairperson: Helen Herrman (Australia)
14.30-15.00	Keynote 15. Public health as the corner stone for an ecosystem for mental health Philippe Delespaul (Belgium)

15.00-15.30	Keynote 16. An introduction to the Power Threat Meaning Framework: an alternative to diagnostic practice Lucy Johnstone (United Kingdom)
15.30-16.00	Keynote 17. A rights based approach to mental health care: a personal journey Vikram Patel (India/United States)
16.00-16.30	Coffee & tea break
16.30-17.30	Workshop 2. The Power Threat Meaning Framework in practice: changing the culture on psychiatric wards Faye Nikopaschos and Lucy Johnstone (United Kingdom)	Symposium 6. New and alternative methods of care Chairperson: Rob Keukens (The Netherlands) Lake Hurdal Recovery Center Norway; 7 years experience - Ole Andreas Underland (Norway) ; From fiction to science – using neuroimaging to target treatment in anxiety and depression – Carmen Andreescu (USA) ; Strengthening population mental well-being via a mental health literacy website – Petr Winkler (Czechia)
17.30-18.30	Workshop 2 continues Lucy Johnstone (United Kingdom)	Workshop 3. Implementing CRPD in mental health practice Dovile Juodkaite (Lithuania) Valentina Hristakeva (Bulgaria)
18.30-18.45	Logistical break
18.45-19.00		Closing of the conference